

Action Taken Report on Feedback

Following improvements in Curriculum has been undertaken in view of the Employers suggestions.

- Develops good administering steam therapies, oil messaging, and meditation and exercise skills required for employability of students.
- Theory and practice balances for prevention of disease and cure of Sickness to bridge the gap between theory and clinical practice.
- Syllabus maintains health and wellbeing and practical approach are applied at individual, Community and social level for betterment of society.
- Ayurveda Medical Officers, Laborers, Sanitary Laborers, Technician, Laboratory Assistant, Attendant, Pharmacist, Masseurs, Traditional Doctors are well planned for effective human resource utilization.
- Increase in demand for traditional medicines and healthcare services over the years, helps to start entrepreneurial venture.
- Develops overall development to communicate with patients and society.
- Develops leadership quality and independent thinking for professional development.
- Patients are entitled to expect high standards of practice and conduct from their Ayurveda practitioners .

Prof. Dr. Manish Kumar Harit
D.Y. Patil University, School of Ayurveda
Navri, Navri Mumbai